

I would like to add my name to the list of those opposed to regulation that would force internet providers to allow their systems to be more easily monitored by law enforcement. I am opposed to such regulation because I believe it will interfere with the development of the internet and hinder communication. Thank you for your time.